CLASS WILL

We, the Class of '52, being in comparatively sound mind do solemnly declare this our last will and testament.

To any aspiring pharmacist, Faith Alloway leaves her job in Strong's.

Herbie Andersen's stature is left to John Sinnock.

Dale Bromley gratefully receives the blond, curly hair which attracts women and was left to him by Reynell Andrews.

Susan Barnes leaves her ability to get along with next year's football captain to Coach Young and Coach Dunn.

To all the bashful beaus of the Junior Class, James Barron leaves his way with women.

Joey Brink leaves his position in the Honor Society to Charlie Bende.

Duane Bruen leaves his set-shots to Gene Kolman. He doesn't need much practice on them, either.

One pair of bowling shoes are reluctantly left by Warren Cherveney to Fred May.

Charlie Cox leaves a fervent prayer for the success of the Junior Class.

Bud Kroll receives Walt DuVall's diminishing prejudices against wine, women and song.

Peter Earle leaves his political ways to Jean Sawyer.

Pete Eisma regretfully leaves his football "drive" to Roy Gillespie.

His deep appreciation for Bach and Shubert is left by Bob Farley to Uner Helhoski.

Ronnie Fear leaves his ability to "get around" to Dave Barbuti.

John Germain leaves his horses to Joan Knapp.

A brain is left by Dick Hansen to anyone who needs it.

Jean Hawkins leaves her appreciation of that certain group of Junior boys to the Junior girls.

Richie Osburn has practically taken it anyway, so Joey Hawkins leaves him his key to the Senior soda room.

One "left arm" is left to David Dill by Bill Hawkins.

Bob Jensen leaves his many shop classes to George Peavy.

Donnie Keeney leaves his ability to head the soccer ball to LeRoy Barnes.

To anyone who likes to eat, Joan Lewis leaves her cafeteria position.

Mary Luft leaves her bewitching way with John Raszewski to Wilma Harding.

Her formula for "form" is left by Janet Lynch to Janet Conklin.

Kenny Hawkins welcomes the basketball height left to him by Trudy Mabee.

Donny Marsh leaves Rosenberg's.

One dark corner, size 6' by 8,' in the far hall is left to Steve Hopkins by Jim Petzen.

It looks as though Steve will be needing it!

Frank Critelli isn't sure he wants the ability to stay out of trouble and get along with the teachers which was left to him by Gloria Pierce.

Catherine Quackenbush leaves her vast "knowledge of facts" to Jim Derby.

D'Ambrosi's night club is reluctantly given to Paul Kroll by John Raszewski.

Jack Richner leaves Lincoln Avenue Speedway to Mike Mulhair.

Frances Sanok gladly shoves her onions on anyone who doesn't know how to cry.

Paul Starkey leaves his wrestling "unlimited class" to Skippy Kruger.

Arlene Stiller leaves that certain Sophomore Jayvee basketball player to Mona Pellew.

John Szarwark leaves his much-needed car to Doug Spiers.

Lotte Tobias finally leaves Frances and Grace.

Candy macaroons are left to Mary Smith by Frieda Turksma.

Alice Tuthill is just leaving—and taking that certain soccer captain with her.

Barbara Freedman receives Minerva Velez's ability to speak Spanish.

Pat Fitzpatrick accepts with anguish Johanna Vetri's ability to wear "high heels."

A typewriter is left by Edna Vogel to anyone who needs it.

Grace Wager leaves her gift of gab to Violet Mercer.

John Steffens giggily accepts Fred Walsh's "giggle."

Dolly White's enduring ability to stick to one man is left to Eleanor Polhemus.

Daniel Wood leaves his sleeping pills to John Keller.

One horn is left by Phil Young to anyone who has the strength to blow it.

Rose Zalonski's "poodle cut" is left to Jo Salamone.

PROPHECY

Dear Lotte,

Frannie and I are graduate nurses now. We spend part-time in the hospital and the rest as visiting nurses. Last Saturday, on our rounds, we surprisingly ran into a lot of our old friends.

First thing in the morning, we were called up for an emergency case. Jack Richner, a heroic pilot, was brought in, critically injured. His plane, en route to Paris, crashed in Queens, and he rescued eight passengers. Among them were Joan Fischer, Jean Hawkins, and Adele Pechar, who were on a pleasure cruise around the world. Father Cocks was there to administer last rites.

The famous husband and wife doctor team, Quackenbush and Young, performed a skillful operation, while Gloria Pierce was giving Jack hypo needles.

When our car refused to start, we called the nearest garage, "The Greasepot," and the owners, Joe and Bill Hawkins renewed our car's vigor.

We stopped downtown at an insurance office, where bald-headed Nickey Boley is vice-president. As we walked in, his secretary, Edna Vogel, jumped off his lap, and Jimmy Barron, now office boy, scurried to his corner.

We head a noise outside the window and trudging down the street was the Salvation Army Band, led by Susan Barnes, still giggling and twirling her baton, while Mary Luft was clanging the cymbals. James Petzen was bravely singing "Abide With Me."

We stopped at the first house on our list. Out in the backyard was Janet Lynch hanging out huge baskets of clothes. Dolly White was in the other side cooking breakfast for her five children. They both like married life.

Just then the earth shook and a house across the street blew up. When the explosion was over, we saw Dick Hansen and David Keller hanging on a tree with a test tube in their hands. When we saw they were still alive, we ran over to "Faith's Pharmacy" for some iodine.

We traveled a hundred miles before we stopped at "Frieda's Hash House" for dinner. We remembered G. H. S. when we saw Joan and Pat Lewis with their hair in nets, scooping out mashed potatoes.

During our dessert two policemen, who happened to be John Rasczewski and Paul Starkey came in, went over to a back table and handcuffed the main suspect for the Brink Robbery, who turned out to be our old classmate, Jim McGarry. As McGarry was led out he shouted, "I want my lawyer, Reynell Andrews." Muriel Waibel, now a New York Times photographer, was on hand to take his picture.

As we were going back to our car, Franny bought a paper from a tough-looking newsboy who was Donald Marsh. While leafing through the paper we happened to glance at the sports section, and there was a picture of Roger Starkey, our old G. H. S. baseball star, hitting .400 for the New York Yankees. We also noticed a picture of the New York Knickerbockers with four of their best players—Duane Bruen, Peter Eisma, Bob Jensen, and Donald Keeney.

As we were driving down Fifth Avenue, we got into a traffic jam caused by the Dairymen's League Parade. Up in the front line were Joe Brink, Daniel Wood, Bob Andryszak, and John Szarwark.

At night we went to the Copacabana, where Minerva Velez was the newest attraction and Alice Tutbill is head hair stylist. We got to bed at 2:00 that night.

Oh, we almost forgot. Last week we were riding along a country road when we saw two hobos under a tree—Herby Andersen and Fred Walsh. In the New York papers we read of a man who is doing what he always wanted. Bobby Farley is directing the choir at Riverside Cathedral.

The rodeo was in New York a few days ago, featuring John Germain as a broncho buster. On our way home we saw Peter Earle on a street corner with a soap box. Not selling soap. He is campaigning for the Presidency.

Yesterday, we received a letter with the latest gossip. Johanna Vetri is married and living at the Bradford in Boston. Warren Cherveney is the house detective there.

Mom saw Trudy Mabee's latest paintings at the Museum of Modern Art. She said that Arlene Stiller is the Latin teacher in Goshen, while Rose Zalonski is secretary to the supervising principal.

Hope you like your new job as airline hostess. Sure was surprised to hear of your running into Col. Walter DuVall, USMC, and Pvt. Ronnie Fear while they were on leave from the war in Korea. Hope to see you soon.

Fond regards,
FRANCES AND GRACE
